The result of your FAFSA is called the Student Aid Report (SAR) and it summarizes the data you reported on your application. You will receive your SAR via e-mail confirmation. Please be sure to read and review this information carefully for accuracy. Should you need to make corrections you may do so electronically by submitting a FAFSA correction online at www.fafsa.gov.

If you are borrowing a Direct Stafford or Graduate PLUS Loan for the first time as a student of St. Thomas University’s School of Law, you must complete an Entrance Counseling online at www.studentloans.gov before your loans can be disbursed. You will only be required to complete the Loan Entrance Counseling once.

4. Direct Stafford Unsubsidized Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN). You must have an MPN on file with the U.S. Department of Education before your loans can be disbursed. If you are borrowing a Direct Stafford Loan for the first time as a student of St. Thomas University’s School of Law, you must complete a Stafford Unsubsidized MPN online at www.studentloans.gov. You may be eligible to borrow up to $20,500 per academic year through the Stafford Loan program. These loans are not subsidized and interest will begin to accrue from the date of disbursement at a fixed rate of 5.84%. This loan is also subject to a 1.073% federal loan fee deducted at the time of disbursement. There is no credit check required and no payments are required while you are in school at least half-time. Several repayment options are available. You will only be required to complete this MPN once.

5. 2015-2016 Direct Stafford Loan Request Form. You must submit this form online at www.stu.edu/faforms every time you are requesting a new loan. If you are completing this form for the first time, you will be required to create your own username and login. If you are requesting a loan for both the Fall and the Spring semesters be sure to select both terms on this form.

6. Direct PLUS Loan MPN for Graduate/Professional Students. In addition to the Stafford Loan, law students needing to borrow more than $20,500 per academic year may be eligible for additional funds through the Federal Direct PLUS Loan Program. The Direct PLUS Loan program may allow you to borrow up to your cost of attendance minus all other forms of financial aid you are receiving. Interest on this loan will begin accruing at disbursement at a fixed rate of 6.84%* and a 4.292%* federal loan fee will be deducted at disbursement. Although the Direct PLUS Loan enters repayment immediately after the loan is fully disbursed, you are not required to make payments while you are in school at least half-time. To apply for a Direct PLUS Loan for Graduate/Professional Students you must complete a Grad PLUS MPN online at www.studentloans.gov. You must have an MPN on file with the U.S. Department of Education before your loans can be disbursed. This loan is subject to credit approval based on criteria established by the U.S. Department of Education. If your application is declined due to adverse credit, you may be given the option to appeal the credit decision or apply with an endorser. Should you be approved, with a successful appeal or obtaining a credit-worthy endorser, you will be required to complete a PLUS Loan Counseling session at www.studentloans.gov prior to your loan being disbursed. To learn if your loan will be approved for credit, you may complete the “Request Direct PLUS Loan” Process (this is a credit check) online at www.studentloans.gov after May 1, 2015.

7. 2015-2016 Direct Graduate PLUS Loan Request Form. You must submit this form online at www.stu.edu/faforms every time you are requesting a new Grad PLUS loan. However, before you request a Grad PLUS Loan you must first request a Stafford Loan (above). Dropping/Withdrawing

Federal student aid is subject to the U.S. Department of Education's Return of Title IV funds policy which states that when a student completely drops or withdraws from school during a semester in which he/she received federal student aid (including loans), the school must calculate, according to formulas defined by the U.S. Department of Education, the portion of aid the student earned for the time he/she was enrolled in school. If you completely drop or withdraw from school prior to completing at least 60% of the semester, you and/or the school may be required to return all or a portion of the aid awarded to you, and you may incur a balance with the University. To avoid any unnecessary financial hardship, you should consult with your Financial Aid Advisor prior to dropping or withdrawing.

Financing Your Education

The following Estimated Cost of Attendance (COA) figures are provided to assist you with your financial planning. These figures are for the 2015-2016 academic year (September – May) based on full-time enrollment (12-18 credits per semester). Your total financial aid award (including all scholarships, grants, loans, and other awarded financial assistance) cannot exceed the total COA based on your housing status provided on your FAFSA. These are estimated costs, it is strongly recommended that you review your individual financial needs before borrowing any student loans and borrow only what you need. When planning your educational costs, it is essential that you also plan for future repayment of any amounts borrowed.

How to borrow wisely

- Don’t borrow without looking into alternative methods of financing your education (i.e. scholarships, fellowships, savings, family assistance, etc.)
- If you must borrow a private loan, carefully compare loan terms, including interest rates, loan fees, and repayment incentives. It is strongly suggested that students consider borrowing through the U.S. Department of Education’s Federal Direct Student Loan Programs before pursuing any private or alternative loan programs.
- Repay your debts as soon as possible, the longer you owe, the more you will pay.
- To help secure your financial future, don’t borrow more than what you will be able to afford to repay.
- Try to borrow as little as possible. Borrow ONLY what you need.
