Loan Entrance Counseling. You may be eligible to borrow up to $20,500 per academic year ($10,250 per semester) through the Stafford Loan program. These loans are unsubsidized so interest will begin accruing at disbursement at a fixed rate of 6.84%. This loan is subject to a 1.073% federal loan fee deducted at the time of disbursement. Private or Alternative Loans

Private Loans are non-federal student loans typically borrowed by students who are not eligible for Federal student loans. Private loans are subject to credit approval by your lender of choice. In some cases, you may be required to apply with a credit-worthy co-signer. Although the private loan may allow you to borrow up to your total cost of attendance, you should borrow only what you need. In most cases, these loans have variable interest rates and repayment terms may vary between lenders. International students may be required to apply with a credit-worthy United States citizen as a co-signer/borrower. In some cases, the lender may require that you submit additional information along with your application such as, proof of U.S. citizenship or proof of income. If your total COA has been met by other forms of assistance (scholarships, grants, federal loans, etc.) you will not be eligible for a private/alternative loan. For more information or to apply for a private loan, please contact your lender of choice, or visit STU’s Financial Aid home page at www.stu.edu/financialaid and select “Student Loan Programs” to view a listing of private lenders and compare their benefits.

Scholarships

Scholarships may be available to eligible students and are typically awarded at the time of admissions by the Admissions Committee. Other scholarship opportunities may also be available to deserving students, subject to availability of funds, and are awarded and administered by the Program Director for your LL.M Program.

FINANCING YOUR EDUCATION

To assist you with your financial planning we have included the following estimated Cost of Attendance (COA) based on full-time enrollment (24 credits for the year). Your total financial aid award (including all scholarships, grants, loans, and other awarded financial assistance) cannot exceed the total COA based on your housing status provided on your FAFSA. These are estimated costs, it is strongly recommended that you review your individual financial needs before borrowing any student loans and borrow only what you need. When planning your educational costs, it is essential that you also plan for future repayment of any amounts borrowed.

How to borrow wisely

- Don’t borrow without looking into alternate methods of financing your education (i.e. scholarships, fellowships, savings, family assistance, etc.)
- If you borrow a private loan, carefully compare the terms of the loan, interest rates, loan fees, and repayment incentives.
- Repay your debts as soon as possible, the longer you owe, the more you will pay.
- To help secure your financial future, don’t borrow more than what you will be able to afford to repay.
- Try to borrow as little as possible. Borrow ONLY what you need.
