(Dr.) Barry Hart Dubner

My Course Reserve Materials

Class Assignments:

The first two days of class will be devoted to lectures given by me. The purpose of the lectures is to give an introduction and overview of the course materials to you. We will cover pp. 1-214; 703-737 over the two-week period that I am teaching my part of the course. You will find course materials for this course attached to this syllabus. Keep two assignments ahead for each class. Keep in mind that this is not a course in Admiralty Law. Admiralty Law is a branch of private law dealing with, for example, injuries to seamen, cargo losses, etc. International Maritime Crimes is a branch of public international law dealing with jurisdictional problems, such as 200-mile limits, contiguous and exclusive economic zones, fishing, mineral rights, piracy, slavery, environmental, etc.

For my part of the course, you will be graded based upon a take-home essay exam worth 50 points which will be given to you on the first day of my two-week period. It will be due June 10th (mid-night). Professor Summers will be providing you with an exam for his part of the course. His part will be worth 50 points also. Therefore, your final grade will be a total of 100 points, combining Prof. Summers’s and my points.

If you have any questions before going to Spain, please contact me at bdubner@barry.edu or 407-754-9496.

I hope that you enjoy the course.
