Membership Selection

1. 1L Invitational Competition:

   a. IMC shall sponsor an intramural competition for first-year students every April, following the first-year Appellate Advocacy oral arguments.

   b. The competition shall be coordinated by the Competitions Chairperson.

   c. The Competitions Chairperson shall hold an informational meeting for all first-year students interested in the competition. Notice of such meetings shall be given to all first-years at least one week in advance. At this meeting, students shall be given to all first-years at least one week in advance. At this meeting, students will be informed of: 1) the dates when the three (3) copies of their appellate briefs are due; and 2) the dates of the actual competitions rounds.

   d. On the date the 1Ls are required to submit their appellate briefs, the Competitions Chairperson will distribute the following in return to students: 1) an anonymous grading number; and 2) release forms, which entitle IMC to determine if a competitor is on academic probation. Students on academic probation are precluded from participating in the 1L Invitational Competition. This release form will not entitle any IMC member to determine any candidate's specific grades- on grade point average, nor will this information be released.

   e. The Competitions Chairperson will insure that the 1L briefs with anonymous grading numbers, along with scoring sheets, are equally disbursed to IMC members, providing deadlines for returning them. Briefs must be returned to the Competitions Chairperson prior to the judging of preliminary oral rounds.

   f. The Competitions Chairperson will post a sign-up sheet and scheduled pairings after receiving 1L appellate briefs. All competitors shall participate in two preliminary rounds.

   g. Judging will be conducted by Members of IMC for preliminary and semi-final rounds. The competitors shall not be judged twice by the same judge during the two preliminary oral rounds. Prior to the competition, the Competitions Chairperson will conduct a meeting for the judges, during which standard oral argument scoring sheets and bench briefs will be distributed and explained.

   h. The Semifinalists shall be determined based solely on the combined oral scores; and only the top two oral scores from the three oral rounds will be computed into the individual's total oral score and in determining the Finalists.

   i. If IMC allows student to submit written briefs for the problem from the first-year Appellate Advocacy class for the 1L Invitational Competition, the Competitions Chairperson may obtain bench briefs from the Legal Writing Department to be used only as assistance in scoring, the written briefs.

j. All IMC members must attend the final round of the 1L Invitational Competition. Members that cannot attend must submit a legitimate reason to the IMC President or Vice-president. The final round will be judged by a panel of distinguished Professors, Attorneys, or Judges in the legal community with an understanding or specialty in the area of international law argued by the students.

k. The Winning Team /Individual shall automatically receive an invitation to join IMC.

l. In addition to the winning Team /Individual, up to twenty (20) candidates with the highest scores may be invited to join IMC. Scores shall be calculated by adding the average of a candidate's two (2) oral argument scores plus the average of a candidate's written brief scores. The scores shall be weighed on a 100-point scale as follows: 30% oral and %70 written. In the event that the 1Ls have competed using the first-year Appellate Advocacy problem, scores shall be calculated by adding the average of a candidate's two (2) preliminary oral Scores and one (1) international problem oral round score plus the average of a candidate's written brief scores. The weight of the scores shall be calculated as follows: 30% oral and 70% written, with the international oral round worth only 10% of the 70% oral score.

m. In addition to the above IMC may invite up to five (5) candidates with the highest brief scores to be invited to join IMC as Brief Writers. The candidate's score shall be calculated by averaging the scores of those briefs submitted specifically for consideration as Brief Writer positions.

n. In addition to the above, IMC may invite the winners of the Best Oralist and Best Brief Writer Awards to join the organization. The Best Brief Writer may be invited as Brief Writer at the board's discretion.

2. 2L Invitational Competition:

a. IMC shall sponsor an intramural competition for all second-year students in September.

b. The competition shall be coordinated by the Competitions Chair.

c. The Competitions Chairperson shall hold an informational meeting for all second year students interested in the competition. Notice of such meeting shall be given to all second year students at least one week in advance. At this meeting, students will be informed of: 1) the dates when the three (3) copies of their appellate briefs are due; and 2) the dates of the actual competitions rounds.

d. On the date the 2Ls are required to submit their appellate briefs, the Competitions Chairperson will distribute the following in return to students: 1) an anonymous grading number; and 2) release forms, which entitle IMC to determine if a competitor is on academic probation. Students on academic probation are precluded from participating in the 1L Invitational Competition. This release form will not entitle any IMC member to determine any candidate's specific grades or grade point average, nor will this information be released.
e. The Competitions Chairperson will post a sign-up sheet and scheduled pairings after receiving 2L appellate briefs. All competitors shall participate in two preliminary rounds.

f. Judging will be conducted by Members of IMC for preliminary and semi-final rounds. The competitors shall not be judged twice by the same judge during the two preliminary oral rounds. Prior to the competition, the Competitions Chairperson will conduct a meeting for the judges, during which standard oral argument scoring sheets and bench briefs will be distributed and explained.

g. Up to three (3) candidates with the highest scores may be invited to join IMC. Scores shall be calculated by adding the average of a candidate's two (2) oral argument scores plus the average of a candidate's written brief scores. The scores shall be weighed on a 100-point scale as follows: 70% oral and 30% written.

3. Membership Duties:

a. Membership is contingent upon participation in activities as set out in these by-laws.

b. Members shall have the responsibility of informing themselves of meeting times and other functions by checking the IMC bulletin board or their mail files.

c. Members shall be required to attend all general meetings.

d. Members shall be required to judge at least two (2) practice rounds for each competition.

e. Second-year members (2Ls) shall be required to attend every Workshop offered per semester. Third-year members (3Ls) shall be required to attend at least two (2) Workshops per semester.

f. Members are encouraged to promote IMC by attending the IMC Awards Banquet and other social functions.

g. All members must participate in at least one interscholastic competition before graduating from the St. Thomas University School of Law.

4. Interscholastic Competitions.

a. The Executive Board shall examine all interscholastic competitions in April and select the competitions that IMC will participate in the following school year

   i. The expense of the competition

   ii. IMC's previous success at the competition

   iii. The interest of IMC.

   iv. Advise from Faculty Advisor

b. The Executive Board shall be responsible for the fair, timely and efficient selection of teams for IMC competitions and for facilitating the preparation of teams for their respective competitions. Interscholastic teams shall be composed of a 3L member of the previous year's team, with the exception of the Inter-American Human Rights competition in May. The Executive Board shall consider the following:

i. Members that have not competed and have not been asked to compete in any interscholastic competition shall receive the most priority.

ii. Members that have been asked to compete and have refused will receive the least priority.

iii. The Member's level of participation in IMC activities.

iv. The Member's field of interest.

v. The Member's team partner preference.

vi. The Member's oral argument and brief scores in intramural competitions Second-year members will be selected for competitions based on their oral and brief performances in the 1L Invitational Competition, combined with their field of interests.

vii. Where there are a significant number of members that want to participate in the same competition, beyond the limited spots available for team members, the Executive Board may allow a competitive process among members to be used to determine the fairness in selection of interested team members.

viii. Other factors that have been demonstrated to be important in the make-up of winning national teams or that would limit our teams' ability to fairly compete will be considered in the selection process, such as language considerations.

c. Competitors.

i. Accepting a position in a competition means that a Competitor will read all competition rules carefully to insure that they prepare the best possible presentations, whether written, oral or both.

ii. All work must be accurate, thorough, and completed by the assigned time. Preliminary drafts of briefs must be completed by the date designated by the Student Coach and the Competitions Chair, after consultation with the competing team.

iii. All Competitors must meet the practice requirements imposed by their Student Coach. At a minimum, all Competitors should meet for a total of ten (10) practice rounds, when only required to argue one side of the issue. If required to argue both sides of the issue, then all competitors should meet for a total of fifteen (15) practice rounds.

d. Student Coaches

i. Following the selection of interscholastic competitions, the IMC Executive Board shall select Student Coaches.

ii. Third-year members shall be required to coach an interscholastic competition as needed, unless specified otherwise in these by-laws.

iii. A second-year Interscholastic Competitor is required to serve as a Student Coach or as a competitor for the same competition in their third-year as needed, except when such Competitor is graduating in the fall.

iv. Student Coaches will designate dates on which preliminary briefs must be completed by the Competitors, after referring to the specific rules and consultation with the competitors.

v. Student Coaches shall insure that bench briefs are written for the competition. All bench briefs shall be blue booked and proofread for grammatical errors in citations. All bench briefs shall be completed by the assigned time.

vi. Student Coaches shall notify IMC members of any topics of any legal issues that competitors may need assistance researching.

vii. Student Coaches shall obtain the Competitors schedule and plan practice rounds for their oral arguments.

viii. Student Coaches shall insure that judges and classrooms are obtained for practice rounds. All members are expected to judge Interscholastic Competitors.

ix. Student Coaches shall insure that thank-you notes are written to all faculty and outside attorneys who judge Competitors.

5. Intramural Competitions.

   a. All members are expected to judge at least two (2) rounds for intramural competitions.

   b. All members shall attend the meeting during which judging procedures will be explained for all competitions.

   c. All members shall attend the final found of the 1L Invitational Competition. Members that cannot attend the above mentioned activities must submit a legitimate reason to the IMC President or Vice President.

6. Disciplinary Process

   a. Any IMC member whose conduct is not in accordance with any Constitutional provision, by-law or duly enacted, policy of IMC, may be brought up for disciplinary action at the request of any IMC member.

   b. Members who violate the membership duties and/or responsibilities as set out by the Executive Board and the Constitution arid-By-Laws, shall be subject to an initial oral reprimand. The Vice-President shall orally reprimand the member and the member shall sign a statement attesting that an oral reprimand was given.

   c. Members who violate the membership duties and/or responsibilities as set out by the Executive Board and the Constitution and By-Laws for a second time, shall be subject to a written reprimand. The Vice-President shall specify the violation in writing and the member shall sign the reprimand attesting that a written reprimand was given

i. A member may appeal a written reprimand by filing a request of appeal within ten (10) days of receipt of the reprimand. Once an appeal is filed, the Executive Board will meet the member in an informal process whereby the member may present reasons for the violation.

ii. The Executive Board shall vote to either overturn or stay the written reprimand by majority vote. The decision of the Executive Board shall be final.

d. If an IMC member has a third incident of a violation, the member shall be brought up for disciplinary actions.

e. To initiate disciplinary proceedings, an individual IMC member shall file a complaint with the Vice-President. The complaint shall:

   i. Allegate with specificity, both the conduct of the accused member which is the subject of the proceeding; and cite the Constitutional provision, bylaw, or policy which has been violated; and

   ii. Be copied by the Vice-President and delivered to the accused within five (5) school days of the filing of the complaint.

f. After the complaint is filed, the Vice-President shall set a disciplinary hearing within ten (10) school days of the filing of the complaint. The Vice-President shall inform the accused, the complainant and the Executive Board, and shall randomly select a non-interested faculty member to attend the hearing.

g. All disciplinary hearings will proceed in the following manner:

   i. The disciplinary hearing shall be a closed proceeding, ii. The Vice-President shall call the hearing to order.

   iii. The non-interested faculty member selected to be present shall serve to insure that the proceedings are fair and impartial.

   iv. The Vice-President shall preside over the proceedings and make procedural rulings not inconsistent with this section.

   v. Since the Executive Board is comprised of law students, the proceedings are not subject to any formal rules of evidence. No relevant evidence or testimony will be excluded.

   vi. The complainant shall be allowed to present evidence and testimony to the Executive Board.

   vii. After the complainant rests, the accused shall be given the opportunity to present evidence and testimony to the Executive Board.

   viii. At the end of the accused’s presentation, both sides shall be given an opportunity to present closing arguments not to exceed ten (10) minutes each.
ix. The Executive Board shall then deliberate and render a verbal decision within two (2) days of the hearing. A written opinion will be filed by the Secretary in the IMC disciplinary record. To preserve the confidentiality of the proceedings, the written opinion will not be available to members, unless the aggrieved party appeals the decision of the Executive Board. Within this written opinion, agreed to by a majority vote, will be included: 1) finding of fact; 2) conclusions of law; and 3) sanctions.

h. Sanctions

i. Sanctions for a first violation of the membership duties set forth by the Executive Board, the Constitution, and by-laws shall be an oral reprimand.

ii. Sanctions for a second violation of the membership duties set forth by the Executive Board, shall be a written reprimand.

iii. Sanctions for a third violation of the membership duties set forth by the Executive Board, the Constitution, and by-laws, shall be disciplinary action up to and including removal from IMC.

iv. If after a third violation, a member is not removed from IMC, but continues to violate the provisions of the by-laws, the Executive Board may at its discretion initiate disciplinary proceedings and sanctions shall be disciplinary action up to and including removal from IMC.

i. Upon rendition of the verdict, an aggrieved party may appeal the decision of the Executive Board. The appeal shall be made to a Quorum of the Moot Court and shall take place at the next scheduled general board meeting. The appeal must proceed as follows:

   i. The IMC President shall preside.

   ii. The appeal shall begin with a reading of the verdict of the Executive Board by the Vice-President.

   iii. Each party shall be allocated ten (10) minutes to argue.

   iv. A maximum of fifteen (15) minutes will then be allocated for the IMC to ask questions of the parties. The President will recognize IMC members for questions. Under no circumstances will argument or discussion be allowed during this question and answer period.

   v. Following the question and answer period, the parties shall leave the room.

   vi. A maximum of fifteen (15) minutes will then be allocated for discussion among IMC members present. The President will recognize members for the purpose of discussion.

   vii. IMC members will then vote on the appeal. The President, however, shall vote in the event of a tie.

   viii. To overturn the decision of the Executive Board, a majority of all members... present must vote in favor of reversal. Under no circumstances will proxy votes be allowed or counted.

j. Any member who fails to participate in at least one interscholastic competition before graduating shall be subject to removal from IMC at the discretion of the Executive Board.

7. Election Procedures

a. Members seeking Executive Board positions must be in good academic standing with the law school.

b. Members interested in the Executive Board positions of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and Competitions Chairperson must run for these positions in the March of their second year of law school.

c. Members graduating early in December shall be precluded from running for an Executive Board position.

d. Members seeking Executive Board positions must submit a letter of intent to the IMC President one week prior to election, specifying the position they are seeking and their qualifications to serve as an Executive Board officer.

e. Elections for Executive Board positions will take place in March at a time, prior to the 1L Invitational Competition, sufficient to allow for training of the new board.

f. Quorum is required for a valid election. Ballots listing the candidates’ names and positions will be distributed to members present. All candidates shall be allowed a maximum of four (4) minutes to speak and answer questions. Executive Board members shall be elected by a majority vote.

g. Absentee Ballots
i. Members that cannot attend an election must submit a legitimate reason to the IMC President.

ii. Upon determination that a Member's reason for non-attendance at an election is legitimate, the IMC President shall issue the Member an absentee ballot, which must be used to submit their vote prior to the election.

iii. Absentee ballots will be prepared in advance with the names of prospective candidates and positions for which they are running and will be distributed by the President or Vice-President.

iv. Notice of the number of absentee ballots will be mentioned prior to voting by the President.

h. Post-Election Procedures

i. Terms of Executive Board positions commence in April and conclude in March of the following year.

ii. Following the election, Executive Board officers shall spend up to one (1) week training the newly elected Executive Board officers.

8. IMC Awards and Awards Banquet.

a. The Treasurer shall assist in organizing the IMC Awards Banquet and purchasing awards.

b. The Treasurer shall purchase the following member honorary plaques and certificates: 1) trophies for 1L Best Oralist and 1L Best Brief; 2) Certificates for the 1L recipients of the IMC Achievement Award and Best Overall Award; 3) Gift for the Member of the Year; 4) Gift for the Faculty Advisor; 5) Certificates to Graduating Seniors; and 6) Honorary IMC Membership Awards.

c. 1L Invitational Competitions Awards shall be presented to students at the Championship Round.

Adopted and Ratified April 21, 1999
